

PAUL LOWIN

PRIZES 2009

Paul Lowin was born in 1893 in Czechoslovakia, lived in Austria in the 1930s before settling in Australia in 1939. He lived in Australia almost twenty years before returning to Vienna, where he died in 1961. Paul Lowin's great passion in life was music and he left a hand-written will, typed and signed by the appointed executors in December which indicated his wish to establish a competition for works by living Australian composers in a 'modern but not too modern' style. Because of the lack of clarity in the Will, there ensued a thirty-year sustained effort by the executors of his estate to establish a viable competition for composers.

The competition was initially held every three years, with prior Prizes being made in 1991, 1994 and 1997. In 1995 further changes by the court enabled the competition to be held every two or three years. The Paul Lowin Prize is one of Australia's richest prize for music composition. Since 1999 the prizes have been presented in collaboration with the Australian Music Centre, and the next prizes will be awarded in 2009.

The Paul Lowin Prizes are proudly managed by Perpetual Trustees Australia Ltd.
Mr Kenneth W. Tribe, AC, is the Patron of the Paul Lowin Prizes.
